Hakgala Botanical Gardens – this about 28hectares in extent, lie under the shadow of the hakgala rock. The botanic gardens are locally reputed for their collection, the rose garden and magnificent trees, indoor plants and other flowers. And this is a part of the Ramayana. King Ravana kept the depressed Sita, insisting that she marries him. It was here where the heartwarming meeting took place between her and Hanuman, who brought her Rama's ring with the news that Rama was looking for her. He offered to carry her back but she refused saying it would be an insult to Rama's honor if she did so. Part of this majestic garden still exists. It is also said that Hanuman nearly destroyed it in order to prove to Ravana of the forces against him.

Galle Face Green – This is a marvelous place in busy Colombo city facing the Indian Ocean. This is a scenic place to watch the sunset. There is a history behind this long open space green lawn area. The area now known as Galle Face Green was previously a marsh. The British Governor of Colonial Ceylon, Sir Henry Ward, authorised the land to be turned into a green usable open space in 1856. He wanted to introduce some of the pleasures he and his staff enjoyed back in Britain. A sea front promenade was constructed to enable the wealthy to exercise their horses and take in the sea air, The Colpitty Horse Racing Course was built. It covered a larger area than that taken up by the 5 hectare Galle Face Green today.

In the evening you can go for night life activities in Colombo.

Colombo Night life – Being the capital of Sri Lanka, it is also its largest city and has the kind of nightlife in the five-star hotels, pubs, leading restaurants and clubs, Casino Clubbing, Karaoke and etc.
